

Brahma Kund: Located in Rajgir, Bihar, is a sacred water tank believed to be associated with Hindu mythology. Revered by pilgrims, the kund is said to have healing properties and is linked to rituals dedicated to Lord Brahma. Surrounded by lush greenery, it offers a serene atmosphere for reflection and prayer.

Suryakund: Suryakund is a prominent water tank in Rajgir, Bihar, revered for its significance in Hindu traditions. Believed to be dedicated to the Sun God, it attracts devotees seeking blessings and purification. The tank's scenic setting and cultural importance make it a popular spot for rituals and spiritual gatherings.

Gurudwara Shital Kund: Gurudwara Shital Kund, located in Rajgir, Bihar, is a sacred site dedicated to Guru Nanak Dev Ji, the founder of Sikhism. The gurudwara is built near a revered water tank, believed to have healing properties. Pilgrims visit for spiritual solace, communal meals, and to engage in prayer and reflection.

Makhdum Shah Mazar: Situated in Bihar Sharif, is a revered shrine dedicated to the Sufi saint Makhdum Shah. Known for its spiritual significance, the mazar attracts devotees from various backgrounds seeking blessings and guidance. The site features beautiful architecture and hosts annual celebrations, fostering a sense of community and devotion.

Sacred Heart Catholic Church: The Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Nalanda, is a significant religious institution for the local Christian community. Established in the early 20th century, the church features beautiful Gothic-style architecture, characterized by elegant stained glass windows and intricate stonework. It serves as a vibrant center for worship, community events, and spiritual education. The serene surroundings enhance its ambiance, making it a peaceful place for prayer and reflection, while also promoting interfaith dialogue in the culturally rich region.